

It's Dinner Time

Paul Lack Family Had Preview Of New Home

Recent newcomers to Big Spring, the Paul Lack family, had a preview of the town several times before they made their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lack and two children, Paul Jr., 12, and Kathleen, 8, came to West Texas from St. Clair, Mo., about 50 miles from St. Louis. Lack came out in January, but the family didn't join him until school was dismissed in Missouri.

Lack is now employed by Reed Oil Company, and Mrs. Tom Reed is his sister — thus, the numerous trips they had previously made to Big Spring.

As a matter of fact, Paul Jr. feels as though Big Spring has always been his "second home" since he has visited here every summer for several years with his aunt, uncle and cousin.

Work in Eastern Star holds much interest for Mrs. Lack and in St. Clair, she held an office for eight years. She was to have served as worthy matron for the coming year.

Other hobbies she enjoys include cooking (baking pastries is a specialty), sewing and handwork.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lack have also been active in PTA activities, and he has been active in Masonic work for many years.

Baseball is a sport that all four enjoy. Paul alternates at first and third base for the Little League team, Accs. While living in St. Clair the family enjoyed going to St. Louis to see the Cardinals play baseball.

When asked if St. Louis was his favorite team, young Paul says "Well, sure!" For several years now Paul has had the idea of becoming a major league baseball player, but recently decided he might like to be an architect.

A collection of demitasse cups has served as a hobby for little Kathy and she is quite proud of her large collection.

The Lack family is making a home at 803 West 14th.

Date Nut Dessert Is Easy

If you use baking shortcuts for this dessert it can be prepared in jiffy time. Those graham cracker crumbs now come packaged ready for use.

DATE NUT DESSERT
Ingredients:
 One-fourth cup flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 cup very fine graham-cracker crumbs, 1 cup thinly-sliced pitted dates, 1 cup coarsely broken walnut meats, 3 eggs, 1 cup sugar.

Method:
 Stir the flour, baking powder and salt together thoroughly. Mix in the graham-cracker crumbs and then the dates and walnuts. Beat eggs in a medium-sized mixing bowl until thickened and lemon-colored; gradually beat in sugar until very thick and almost white in color. Fold in date-nut mixture. Turn into buttered baking pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 45 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Loosen dessert from sides of pan with spatula or knife; turn out on rack and cool. Serve warm or cold with a topping of whipped cream (slightly sweetened and flavored with vanilla) if desired. Cut remaining dessert in strips and store in tightly covered container.

Note:
 Snip dates crosswise into thin slices with scissors dipped in hot water; do not pack down in measuring. A 6½-ounce package of pitted dates will make about 1¼ cups cut and measured this way. Graham-cracker crumbs now come in a 13¾-ounce package ready for use.

City HD Club Learns To Make Sachet

Members of the City Home Demonstration Club learned the method of making pot pourri delight at a meeting in the home of Mrs. H. V. Crocker.

Mrs. Neil Norred taught the way to use rose petals with spice and oils to make the sachet. This is not only delightful to scent linens and clothing, the group learned, but when put in jars and bottles, it is decorative.

Mrs. Crocker brought the Scripture reading from the second chapter of Luke. Roll call was answered with the name of a recipe recently tried by members.

The next meeting, set for July 12, will be in the home of Mrs. Ross Callihan, 433 Dallas, at 7:30 p.m. This is a change in the regular time of meeting.

Nelson-Martin Vows Taken In Lamesa

LAMESA — Nelva Joy Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nelson, became the bride of Joe Frank Martin of Lovington, N. M., Saturday evening at eight o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Brownwood are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. W. C. Emberton, pastor, officiated for the double ring ceremony which was read at the Church of the Nazarene here.

The altar of the church was banked in greenery and baskets of white gladioli, with cathedral tapers and an archway entwined with satin streamers completing the setting.

Mrs. P. A. Dugger, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly"; she was accompanied by Tahita Neimeyer, pianist, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of pink nylon over net and taffeta fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, tiny puff sleeves, and a fitted bodice with insertions of white dotted nylon and ruffles of the same material. The full skirt of the dress also featured the dotted nylon insertions. She wore a small white hat with seed pearl trim and carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with pink carnations.

Linda Nelson was her sister's maid of honor. Her dress was a pink cotton in a darker shade than that of the bride's. It was styled with a round neckline, deep bertha collar and a full skirt falling from loose pleats at the fitted waistline. Her headband was of pink tulle, and she had a corsage of white carnations.

Darwin Nelson, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Dwayne Nelson, another brother, and Hilton Williams, cousin of the bride.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and held a center arrangement of pink carnations.

For travel, the bride chose a beige sheath dress with matching bolero. Mrs. Martin attended Lamesa High School. Her husband was graduated from Brooksmith

High School and is employed by General Geophysical Co.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio and points of interest in South Texas the couple will make a home in Lovington.

Man Hasn't Spoken In 31 Years

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — This talk-happy capital, where discussion and debate grease the wheels of government and chit-chat spins the party-go-round, will have a July visitor who is fluent in six languages but won't speak a word.

Washingtonians need not feel slighted, however. The visitor, Sri Sadgurn Meher Baba, has kept a voluntary silence for 31 years.

An outstanding spiritual leader of India, Sri Baba will spend four hours receiving friends and disciples at the home of Mrs. James Terry Duce, wife of the vice president of the Arabian American Oil Co. He will be en route to Myrtle Beach, S. C., where a Meher Center has been dedicated by followers of his philosophy.

Sri Baba has not written anything either, except his signature, since 1923, when he finished an account of his "Divine Experience," not to be read until after his death. (Baba communicates by means of an alphabet board.)

He has explained his silence: "God has been everlastingly working in silence, unobserved, unheard, except by those who experience His infinite silence. If my silence cannot speak, of what avail would be speeches made by the tongue?"

Baba, who will be on his 10th trip to this country, also expects to visit another center, "Meher Mount" at Ojai, Calif.

You can add half a cup of finely diced cooked ham to a standard (two cups of flour) muffin recipe. Serve with eggs, of course!

CAMPUS CHATTER

By Mary Sue Hale

As summer progresses and the heat becomes a topic of conversation, two Jayhawk students, Julie Rainwater and Lovelle Fletcher are devoting time and talent to preparation for next year's basketball games. Serving in the capacity of cheerleaders, the girls are currently planning slogans and doing poster work to back the team.

Cleo Nunez and Dorothy Gonzales visited Frances and Esther Bueno this week, Thursday and Friday. Both visitors are from the two sisters' hometown, Fort Stockton, and both are presently attending the Abilene branch of Draughton's Business College.

Some HCJC student, both present and ex, are joined by other local boys who attend college elsewhere in working this summer for the United States Department of Agriculture. Employed by the branch of Agricultural Stabilization Conservation, their task is that of measuring cotton acreage reserve and conservation reserve crops. The boys are Frank Hunt, David Ewing, Rodney Sheppard, Mike Powell, Clark Johnson, Leroy LeFevre, and Bennie Compton.

Current planning for next year's annual, The Jayhawker, is in the tentative stage. Julie Rainwater, editor, has named a beginning staff. Assistant editor is the position allotted to Richard Engle, Bennie Compton, Rodney Sheppard, and Charlie McCarty are to serve in other staff capacities.

Tom Guin, student at Austin College, Sherman, is filling his summer days by working in the garage department at Jones Motor Co.

Sally Cowper, another University of Texas student, is attending Duke University, in Durham, North Carolina.

Expected to arrive in Big Spring any day from her home town, Post, Ann Porterfield will be a student at HCJC for the second summer session, which is scheduled to begin July 15.

Connie Fierro, who is currently working in El Paso, is planning to return to Howard County to attend school this fall.

Another local girl, Mary Lou Garcia, is attending a business school in El Paso. She is to return to Big Spring upon completing her course, to work here.

June might well be the month of brides, but this entire summer will be sprinkled with weddings of many of Big Spring's young people, especially during the month of August.

Some of the new local Mr. and Mrs. after August will be Betty Earley and John Birdwell; Laverne Cooper and Max McCullough; Marlene Mann and David Dibrell; Sharon McRee and Bill Cregar, of Tucumcari, N. M.; Robert Morehead and Frances Head, of Houston.

The two Faulkner brothers, Kirk and Ben, have certainly put the miles between each other, and Big Spring. Both are doing duty in the Marine Corps far from home. Ben is Quantico, Va., and Kirk at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Kirk's service, which compelled him to leave here last Saturday, will keep him occupied for another week, allowing him to return to HCJC to attend the second summer session.

A former Marine, Kirk is merely acting as a Marine reserve, a

Ben, on the other hand, left June 17 and will be away until Aug. 1. This is his first experience as a full-fledged Marine, as he is now being schooled in flight officers training. Ben's stay of reserve training will end in six months. After he finishes college, he will return to the Marines Corps for active duty.
